They waited for Carol Lucy to be at The Plaintiff's residence before they arrested her with the hopes of seeing something that can cause for a search of The Plaintiff's residence by way of magistrate.
12. The defendants jointly and severally abused the process of them being state actors of the law. They used a unfounded ruse to lead them to a place where they knew that they did not belong. This unlawful entry is what furnished their probable cause. according to the record of corporal Gansky the unfounded ruse has been systemic and reoccurring with the Bensalem Township Police Department.
13. Doglas Muraglia is a detective with the New Jersey State Police He is acting under state law wit the above mentioned defendants

FACTS

14. The investigation began in January of 2018 when a confidential source known to the New Jersey State Police alerted law enforcement about a woman named "Carol Lucy" from Philadelphia who had access to large quantities of marijuana and heroin. NJSP approved an investigation, led by Douglas Muraglia.
15. During the investigation, it was learned by law enforcement officers including the named defendants herein that Carol Lucy resided at 1751 Foster street, apartment C8-B,Philadelphia,PA.
16. Carol Lucy sold heroin directly to a cooperating witness twice: On January 31, 2018, and February 15, 2018. Both times she was alone and these transactions happened at the Cherry Hill Mall in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. The Plaintiff was not present for either of these sales.
17. There was a third sale to the cooperating witness and the sale was made at the Franklin Mills Mall in Philadelphia by Taylor Wood on March 15, 2018. Prior to this sale, The Plaintiff was seen by law enforcement with Ms. Wood, however, there was again no direct contact between the cooperating witness and The Plaintiff.
18. Because of Carol drug sales in New Jersey on June 29, 2018, New Jersey State Police(NJSP) applied for and obtained a warrant of arrest for Carol Lucy. The warrant was issued in Camden County, New Jersey.
19. No arrest warrant was sought for The Plaintiff. No search warrant was sought for any premises. During the investigation it was learned that The Plaintiff resided at 108 Federal street Bensalem,PA.

20. On July 9,2018, The Superior Court Of New Jersey issued a ping order allowing investigators to electronically locate Carol Lucy's cellular phone,presumably giving them real time information as to the location of the cell phone.

21. On July 11,2018 at 9:30pm,through electronic surveillance,Carol's cellular phone was located within her residence 1751 Foster street [see:exhibit A-1.]

22. For some reason the investigating officers including the named defendants herein had real time data where Carol was at all time,however they delayed to arrest her at her home.

23. On July 17,2018at 1:30am through electronic surveillance, the investigating officers including the named defendants located Carol Lucy's cellular phone was ping/tracked to 108Federal street Bensalem,PA. [see:exhibit A-2]

24. On July 17,2018 eight hours later at 9:30am,in which is more than enough time to seek a search warrant for The Plaintiff's residence numerous law enforcement officers including the named defendants,from NJSP,BTPD,PPD officers converged on 108 Federal, street.

25. The defendants have no arrest warrant for The Plaintiff nor do they have a search warrant for his residence. The defendants Gansky,George Tobie,Grayo,Muraglia, and Fox loudly banged on The Plaintiff's door until he was awakened.

26. When The Plaintiff answered his door in response to the emergency knocking, defendant Gansky dressed in his police uniform with his marked police car in front of the door of The Plaintiff started to explain to The Plaintiff that there was a abandoned 911 call from a woman screaming a man with a gun. Immediately defendant George also was explaining how troublesome the call was and they have to come into the residence to make sure that there were no injured people within.

27. Defendant Tobie,Grayo, Fox, and Muraglia was flanking The Plaintiff at his door while on his porch in rediness for any foul play as if there was really a screaming woman saying a man with a gun. In an effort without consent led by Defendant Gansky,they rushed into The Plaintiff's foyer.

28. The Plaintiff just backed up once they defendants showed a level of aggression that they was willing to harm The Plaintiff. The defendants started searching the residence with their guns out and set The Plaintiff on his couch and told him not to move until they defendants found probable cause to arrest him.

29. Allegedly their was a firearm in plain sight inside a room Carol was found asleep in.Because of this illegal entry and unreasonable search and seizure, a search warrant was applied for and obtained for 108 Federal street,where a significant amount of money,drugs, and guns was unearthed and used to ultimately file a complaint against The Plaintiff in the United States District Court.

59. Since May 20, 2022 the dismissal of the charges of violation of The Plaintiff's Fourth amendment rights, this 42 u.s.c. § 1983 claim is ripe as it relates to the statue of limitation for its violations.

LEGAL CLAIMS

60. The Plaintiff reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-59.
61. A. Malicious Prosecution-Defendant(s) Joseph Gansky(BTPD), Joseph George(PPD), Matthew Tobie(BTPD), Christopher Grayo(BTPD), Jillian Fox(BTPD), Douglas Muraglia(NJSP), Dale Keddie(Bucks County DA's office), and the other unnamed law enforcement officers who was in concert acting under color of state law along with the abovenamed officers.
62. The defendants had no arrest warrant for The Plaintiff nor search warrant for his residence. Therefore, even if there was reason to believe Carol Lucy was inside The Plaintiff's residence, the defendants knew that they were required to first obtain a search warrant before making an attempt to enter The Plaintiff's residence.
63. The defendants had previous knowledge that Carol Lucy resided at 1751 Foster street apartment C8-B. Why did the defendants wait until the one time Carol visit The Plaintiff for an execution on her arrest ?
64. The defendants purposely and knowingly used Carol Lucy's arrest warrant as their own permission slip, and used her cellular phone as their own fishing rod and Carol as bait. The defendants acted as fisherman on a fishing expedition, seeking an unlawful reward.
65. The defendants were instrumental in putting the law in force against The Plaintiff. They created an exigency that necessitated them to enter The Plaintiff's residence by force and that is what they did.
66. Without adequate justification in according with the United States constitution, the defendants with a reckless disregard for the truth the defendants created a falsehood for a means to probable cause for an arrest of The Plaintiff. Also, the defendants purported a falsehood to the government that The Plaintiff gave them consent to enter into his residence, in which The Plaintiff denies ever giving the defendants permission.
67. The unlawful acts and omissions by the defendants against The Plaintiff violated The Plaintiff's fourth, fifth, and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution.
68. As a result of the defendants actions The Plaintiff proceedings has been prejudice to him since The defendants filed their complaint against The Plaintiff.
69. The illegally obtained evidence has been used against The Plaintiff for consideration of the Indictment(s) against him. The defendants knows this, however, they persisted in pursuin The Plaintiff's case to keep him confined long after their change of position undermine probable cause.
70. The defendants are jointly and severally responsible for initiating criminal proceedings against The Plaintiff, in violations of his fourth amendment rights of keeping him confined to prison.

71. B. Due Process Violation-The defendants acting under color of law in concert with each other failed to recognize, respect, and uphold the absolute guaranteed and vested rights of The Plaintiff. The defendants transcended the jurisdiction of the magistrate and exceeded their authority when they all decided to make an entry without probable cause or search warrant for his residence, in violation of the fourteenth amendment of The Plaintiff's right of due process.

72. The people's rights can only be taken from them by due process of law and in accordance with the constitution. see: Hale v Henkel (1906).

73. C. Illegal Seizure-The defendants acting under color of law approached and surrounded The Plaintiff's residence, seizing him with no warrant for arrest or search for his residence. The Plaintiff's liberty interest was taken from him. The Plaintiff's fourth amendment right was violated by the defendants named and unnamed herein. The defendants are jointly and severally responsible for not acting in accordance with the constitution of respecting The Plaintiff's rights.

74. D. Illegal Entry-The defendants acting under color of law had knowledge that a home may not be entered without a search warrant even if they have an arrest warrant for a person who is a visitor in the home.

75. Instead the defendants depend on the fix rules or procedures of the constitution, they made their own discretion in determining how to enter The Plaintiff's residence. This kind of arbitrary act is against the fourth amendment and it is in violation of The Plaintiff's fourth amendment right, in which the defendants are jointly and severally responsible for.

76. E. Illegal Search-The defendants acting under color of law know that the right of privacy must reasonably yield to the right of search as a rule to be decided by a judicial officer, and not a policeman. see: Wongsun 371 u.s. 471.

77. F. False Evidence-Defendant Joseph Gansky(BTPD), Joseph George(PPD), and Dale Keddie(Bucks county DA's Office) upon evidence of the record they have gave testimony that The Plaintiff gave them consent for them to enter into The Plaintiff's residence. Upon further assessment of that statement by the defendants by the government, it was said by the government that consent giving by The Plaintiff more than likely did not happen. That testimony giving by the defendants influenced probable cause against The Plaintiff in result of him being confined in prison in violation of Plaintiff's fourth amendment rights. see: the gov't Motion to the Court of Appeals, March 9, 2021.

78. . Monell Claim-Defendant Joseph George(PPD), Joseph Gansky(BTPD), Matthew Tobie(BTPD), Christopher Grayo(BTPD), Jillian Fox(BTPD), Douglas Muraglia(NJSP) are being sued in their official capacity as it relates to this claim. These officers were the first officers collectively together when The Plaintiff answered his door.

79. PPD, BTPD, and NJSP are municipalities that failed to train their officers or did these officers think that they have the right to self govern when they are acting under color of state law. The ruse the defendants used on The Plaintiff is an act that is widespread throughout these above municipalities as a normalcy. see: exhibit A-3.

80. There were many alternative for the defendants to do in order not to violated The Plaintiff's rights. However they planed,schemed, and acted contrary to the laws or procedures according to the United States constitution, not respecting The Plaintiff's rights. Jointly and severally the defendants are accountable in their official capacity for their violations against The Plaintiff.

HUMAN RIGHTS AND FREEDOM VIOLATIONS

81. The Plaintiff reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-80.

82. A. Malicious Prosecution      D. Illegal Entry      G. Monell Claim
B. Due Process Violation      E. Illegal Search
C. Illegal Seizure      F. False Evidence

83. For the above reasons, The Plaintiff(Mack Jones) have been violated by the defendants jointly and severally in their individual and official capacity for rights enumerated herein.

84. The Plaintiff have no plain adequate or complete remedy at law to redress the wrongs describe herein. The Plaintiff has been enduring a continuous prejudice because he is still irreparable injured by the conduct of the defendants unless this Court grants the declaratory, compensatory, and injunctive relief in which The Plaintiff seeks.

85. The Plaintiff's is entitled to the standard 200 times punitive and four times compensatory damages for said injuries belonging to harms and sufferings. In the interest of moderation, the damages may be so high that punitive damages will only be assessed at five times.

86. Each violation listed above under A-G represents damages in amount of $10,000.00 per offense, per defendant. In total according to the record its 20 defendants.

87. Item A for Malicious Prosecution is valued by the day-to-day lost The Plaintiff have been enduring since July 17, 2018, the day of the defendants violating his rights enumerated herein, and still at a lost of his home, business, and his sterling reputation tarnished, his credit worthiness blemished, and his family ties impaired.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

88. The Plaintiff reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-87.

89. The Plaintiff respectfully prays that this Court recognize that the defendants named and unnamed herein deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights under color of state law. Recognize the defendants actions was in bad faith for the purpose of retaliation against Plaintiff because he was a target of their investigation for six months and their was no probable cause to arrest him. Being over zealous, the defendants subjected Plaintiff and themselves to an unnecessary harm.

90. The Plaintiff prays that this Court recognize that Plaintiff experienced emotional distress as a result of the first indictment that from about from the defendants illegal acts, and then additional distress as a result of the second superseding indictment.

91. Compensatory damages in amount of $10,000.00 against each defendant per violation jointly and severally.
